1.2 Auto Renewal Billing Terms

All subscription plans renew automatically unless cancelled before the renewal deadline.

Automatic Billing Behaviour

Subscription fees are charged automatically at the end of each billing cycle.

- Charges are applied using the primary payment method registered to the account.

- Taxes, currency adjustments, or pricing revisions may affect the final billed amount.

Renewal Timing

- Monthly plans renew every 30 days from the subscription start date.
- Annual plans renew on the same calendar date each year.
- Billing attempts typically occur between 00:00 and 06:00 local time.

Trial Conversion

- Free trials convert automatically into paid subscriptions if cancellation is not completed before the trial expiration.
- The billing date becomes the day immediately following the trial period.

Example:

If a 7-day trial begins on the 1st of the month:

- Trial ends on the 7th.
- Billing occurs on the 8th unless cancelled beforehand.

1.3 Billing Scenarios

The following billing scenarios describe common operational situations that may result in charges.

Unexpected Subscription Charges

Charges may occur when:

- The subscription was not cancelled before renewal.
- Another household member restarted the subscription using saved credentials.
- Payment authorization was previously pending and processed later.

Customers should verify:

- Active subscription status.
- Billing history in account settings.
- Email confirmation records.

Auto Renewal After Free Trial Expiration

Failure to cancel during a trial period results in automatic conversion to a paid plan.

Key conditions:

- Reminder notifications may be sent but are not guaranteed.
- Cancellation must be completed before trial expiration time.
- Viewing activity during trial does not prevent renewal billing.

Mid-Cycle Plan Upgrades

When upgrading plans:

- Upgrade takes effect immediately.
- Additional charges may be applied proportionally based on remaining billing days.
- Improved streaming features become instantly available.

Example:

Upgrading from Basic to Premium halfway through a cycle results in:

- Immediate access to Premium features.
- Pro-rated billing adjustment.

Mid-Cycle Plan Downgrades

Downgrades apply differently:

- Downgraded features activate only at the next billing cycle.
- Current plan benefits remain active until cycle completion.
- No refunds are issued for unused higher-tier time.

Payment Retry Attempts After Failed Transactions

If payment fails:

- Automatic retries occur within 24 hours.
- Additional retry attempts may occur over 7 days.
- Account access may remain temporarily active during retries.

Failure scenarios include:

- Insufficient balance.
- Expired card.
- Bank authorization rejection.

If retries fail:

- Streaming access may be suspended.
- Outstanding balances remain payable.

Charges Caused by Multiple Active Profiles

Certain plans allow multiple profiles or streams.

Charges may occur when:

- Multiple users initiate concurrent streams beyond plan limits.
- Additional profile purchases are enabled under Family Sharing plans.
- Account sharing across households triggers plan upgrades.

The account owner remains responsible for all authorized usage.

Third-Party Billing Charges

Customers billed through mobile carriers, smart TV manufacturers, or app stores may experience:

- Delayed billing posting dates.
- Bundled subscription renewals.
- Separate cancellation requirements.

Billing questions should first verify the billing provider listed under account settings.

SECTION 2 — SUBSCRIPTION REFUND POLICY

2.1 Refund Eligibility Overview

Refunds are evaluated based on billing status, service usage, and timing of the request.

Refund eligibility does not guarantee approval and is determined using automated and manual verification.

2.2 Refunds During Free Trial Period

Eligible situations:

- Subscription cancelled before trial expiration.
- Accidental payment authorization completed shortly after cancellation.

Conditions:

- No significant streaming activity after billing conversion.
- Request submitted within 48 hours of billing.

If cancelled properly before expiration, no payment should be charged.

2.3 Refund Requests Immediately After Renewal

Customers may request refunds when:

- Renewal charge occurred unintentionally.
- Subscription was cancelled shortly after renewal.

Eligibility factors include:

- Request submitted within 72 hours of renewal.
- Minimal streaming activity after renewal.
- No repeated refund abuse history.

Refunds are commonly approved if viewing hours remain limited.

2.4 Partial Refund Situations

Partial refunds may apply when:

- Annual subscriptions are cancelled early.
- Service disruptions prevented streaming access.
- Billing errors resulted in duplicate charges.

Partial refund calculation considers:

- Remaining unused subscription period.
- Promotional discounts applied during purchase.

2.5 Refund Requests After Service Usage

Refunds may be denied when:

- Significant content streaming occurred after renewal.
- Downloads or offline viewing features were used extensively.
- Account sharing generated substantial usage.

Usage logs may be reviewed during evaluation.

2.6 Refund Eligibility for Non-Usage

Customers claiming non-usage may qualify when:

- No streaming sessions occurred after billing.
- Device login activity is absent.
- Technical access failures are verified.

Refund approval depends on system access records.

2.7 Refund Request Deadline

Refund requests must be submitted within:

- 72 hours for monthly plans after renewal.
- 7 days for annual plans after renewal.

Requests submitted beyond these timelines may be rejected.

2.8 Refund Processing Timeline

Once approved:

- Refund processing begins within 3 business days.
- Banking settlement typically completes within 5–10 business days.

Processing times depend on financial institutions.

2.9 Refund Method

Refunds are issued only through:

- Original payment method used during purchase.

Examples:

- Card payments return to the same card.

- UPI refunds return to linked bank accounts.
- Carrier billing refunds may appear as bill credits.

Cash alternatives or transfers to different payment methods are not supported.

SECTION 3 — CANCELLATION TERMS AND PROCEDURE

3.1 Website Cancellation Process

Customers may cancel subscriptions through account settings.

Steps:

1. Log into the Netflix account.
2. Navigate to Account Settings.
3. Select Subscription and Billing.
4. Click Cancel Membership.
5. Confirm cancellation request.

A confirmation email is automatically generated.

3.2 Mobile Application Cancellation

For subscriptions purchased through mobile applications:

1. Open the Netflix mobile app.
2. Access Profile Settings.
3. Select Manage Subscription.
4. Redirect to billing provider (App Store or Play Store).
5. Confirm cancellation.

Cancellation must be completed through the billing platform managing payments.

3.3 Smart TV or Third-Party Billing Cancellation

Where subscriptions were activated through:

- Telecom bundles.
- Smart TV partners.
- Internet service provider packages.

Customers must cancel through the third-party provider portal.

Netflix account cancellation alone does not stop billing.

3.4 Deadline to Avoid Next Billing Charge

To avoid the next renewal:

- Cancellation must be completed before the billing renewal timestamp.
- Same-day cancellations may not prevent charges if billing has already initiated processing.

Customers should cancel at least 24 hours before renewal.

3.5 Immediate Cancellation vs End-of-Billing-Cycle Cancellation

Customers may experience the following outcomes:

End-of-Cycle Cancellation (Default)

- Streaming access continues until billing period expires.
- No refunds issued for remaining days.

Immediate Cancellation (Limited Cases)

May apply when:

- Fraud or unauthorized charges are verified.
- Refund approved simultaneously.

Access may end immediately.

3.6 Access After Cancellation

After cancellation:

- Streaming benefits remain active until billing cycle completion.
- Downloaded content becomes inaccessible once subscription expires.

Profiles and watch history remain stored temporarily.

3.7 Confirmation Notification Process

Upon successful cancellation:

- Email confirmation is sent to the registered email address.
- Account dashboard displays cancellation status.
- Billing history records cancellation timestamp.

Customers should retain confirmation emails for billing disputes.

3.8 Account Reactivation Rules

Cancelled accounts may be reactivated anytime before account archival.

Reactivation conditions:

- Previous profiles and recommendations may be restored.
- Billing resumes immediately upon reactivation.
- Free trials are not reinstated for returning customers.

If the account remains inactive for extended periods:

- Viewing history or downloads may be permanently removed.
